Monday, July 11, 2:00 Entertainment: MacPhail Hour Presents Harmonious Horns; Mike Alexander and Allison Akins

One of the most in-demand freelance musicians in the Midwest, horn player MIKE ALEXANDER is known for his versatility as a solo, chamber, orchestral, and commercial musician. Mike was appointed Principal horn of the Minnesota Opera Orchestra in 2019, and performs regularly with the Minnesota Orchestra, Saint Paul Chamber Orchestra as well as opera and ballet pits throughout Minnesota. Outside of classical music, Mike has played in touring Broadway productions ranging from West Side Story to My Fair Lady, and has performed with a myriad of musical acts including Evanescence, Josh Groban, Weird Al Yankovic, and Mannheim Steamroller. Alexander holds a master's degree in performance from the New England Conservatory, and a bachelor's in horn performance with Artist Diploma from the Eastman School of Music.

Although the majority of ALLISON AKINS work at MacPhail is comprised of managing the Sing, Play, Learn! early childhood music program at MacPhail, Allison is an accomplished horn player. Akins has a master's degree in Horn Performance and Literature from the Eastman School of Music, in addition to her undergraduate performance degree from the University of Kansas. An avid performer, she has worked with the Kansas City Symphony, Rochester (NY) Philharmonic, Portland (ME) Symphony as well as national tours of Tony Award-winning musicals Billy Elliot and Mary Poppins. Current freelance work has included collaborations with local ensembles including VocalEssence, Oratorio Society, Magnum Chorum and Itasca Symphony Orchestra.
