

A Special Message

At Langton Shores, we see it as our responsibility to continually adapt and innovate to serve the needs and desires of those seeking transitional care. In our ongoing efforts to provide you with the best environment to recover, refresh and renew following an illness or injury, your health and well-being is at the top of our mind now more than ever.

When thinking about transitional care at Langton Shores, here is some information to consider:

What hasn't changed?

A holistic, fresh approach to transitional care remains our highest priority in helping you regain your independence. You can still count on:

- Superior clinically-integrated care
- In-patient rehabilitation
- Guest-focused hospitality
- Priority registration
- Private suites with a hotel-like atmosphere
- Committed, compassionate staff
- Innovative ways to engage in activities and entertainment
- Vital wellness and fitness resources
- Inviting and attractive common spaces

What has changed?

Your comfort and safety is always a primary consideration in shaping these measures:

- Equipped with pathogen-reducing air purification technology
- Modified visiting options that follow current guidelines
- Additional health and safety measures like enhanced cleaning of frequently used areas, screening and limiting those entering our buildings, adjusted protocols for moving in and out, and more
- Added meal delivery options to complement staggered dining schedules where applicable
- Updated suite housekeeping procedures

We welcome the opportunity to talk with you, be your resource and learn what matters most to you.
